

around town

Ron Emmons will direct the much-honored CHS Drama Workshop in a presentation during the South Shore Art Festival preview champagne party at the Art Center headquarters on Ripley Road. Awards will be made on June 30 to prize-winning artists exhibiting in the July 4th Festival.

Mrs. Kenneth Cook of Pond Street is a member of the committee planning the Friends of the South Shore Conservatory of Music cocktail party and dance to be held June 16 at the Conservatory in Hingham. Plans for the recital hall addition will be revealed and Denise Ripley, Executive Secretary of the group, announced black tie will be optional.

Robert Tis of Hugh Strain Road, an engineer at the Plymouth nuclear plant, spoke of Pilgrim I and nuclear safety at the Scituate Chamber of Commerce meeting. Tis talked about the topic which has been foremost in many minds for the past several months.

Paul Hellar, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Hellar of Beach Street., and a 1978 graduate of CHS, was a middle on the lacrosse team at Drew University.

Paul Lualdi, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lualdi Sr. of Deep Run, and Jeannine Pompeo, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roger Pompeo, graduated from Derby Academy during exercises held in the New North Church in Hingham. The 17 members of the graduating class were honored at a luncheon in the Ross Memorial Diningroom at the school.

June is the month of graduations and among the new seekers of fame and fortune from our town are John T. Brewer, Michelle M. Kjer, James Louongo and Andrew C. Wheelwright, who graduated from the U. Massachusetts at Amherst. Linda Derosa, daughter of the Anthony Derosas of Locust Road, received her AB from Regis College. She was a music major. Wendy Chambers graduated from Simmons College with a BA in Retail Management. She interned at Woodward and Lothrop in Washington DC and plans to settle in Baltimore, Md.

Mark Follinger received his BA from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. Valerie Norris graduated from Whitman State College in Walla Walla Wash., and Joseph Cooper from St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa.

Michael C. Libby was

MOPED POWER gets Carol Stover, left, and Sarah Roebuck to Cushing Plaza for shopping and saves gas in bargain.

(Derr photo)

awarded an AB degree in History from Providence College in R.I. Mary-Ann Devin received her BA and Colleen Gallagher her BS from Merrimack College. Tod MacKenzie graduated from Fairfield U.

Mrs. James Whelan of Atlantic Avenue attended the benefit showing of the works of portraitist George Augusta at the Eunice K. Shriver Center. The artist attended the wine and cheese party held in the rotunda of the International Building.

Ginny Johnson, Pat Fitzgerald and Rosee Duffey won the Cohasset Newcomers award at a bridge marathon luncheon held at the Inn For All Seasons.

Tom Duggan of Ripley Road is a member of the cast of Walter Kerr's play "The murders of Miriam," presented by the Merry-Go-Round Players on June 14 and 16 at Hingham South Jr. HS.

John Connell of James Lane entertained exhibitors of the third annual antique show sponsored by the Beechwood Congregational Church at the Town Hall last weekend. Among his guests were Jane Flynn of "Back Street Antiques," Shirley McLeon of "King & I," Norma Turner and her daughter Mandy Kravette of "Carousel," and popular Cohasset decorator Charlotte Frost.

Jack Conway is on the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce addition of the Robert M. Faxon conferenced Center in Quincy. The South Shore C. on C. is the largest accredited suburban Chamber in the nation. Dedication of the new room will be in the early Fall.

Francis D'Angleo received a service pin commemorating his five years as an employee of the South Shore Hospital.

Winifred Lee Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Dickson of Tupelo Road was married to Lt. Kames Robert Graham, son of Mrs. James G. Graham of Westboro. Kelly Ann Dickson was maid of honor and Charles R. Simmons best man. The reception was held at the bride's home. After a wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the couple will live at Pease Air Force Base in Lubbock, Texas. both Lt. and Mrs. Graham are graduates of Holy Cross College in Worcester.

After a wedding trip to Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paul Delaney are living in Cohasset. Mary Louise Ferris married Joseph Delaney in St. Paul's Church, Hingham and the reception was held at the Marshfield Country Club. The bride is an administrative assistant at Conrad Advertising in Hingham and the bridegroom is an electronics technician at Motorola Communications in Neponset.

Navy Hospitalman Apprentice Donald Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell of 2 Black Horse Lane has graduated from Field Medical Service School.

The five-week course at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C., is designed to prepare Navy hospital corpsmen and dental technicians for duty with Marine Corps combat units.

A 1977 graduate of CHS Bell joined the Navy in October 1978.

Fitchburg State College awarded degrees to over 1,000 at its 82nd annual graduation ceremony June 3.

Among graduates were: Danda E. Green, 39 Ash Street and Karen M. Keyes, 23 Hughey road.

Final Clearance Flea Market Sale

Disappointed twice by rain on scheduled dates, the Cohasset Historical Society will hold a final clearance Flea Market sale Saturday, June 23, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the grounds of the Lothrop House at 14 Summer Street.

The objective of the sale is to clear the Lothrop House of the accumulated donations of items and material so that interior restoration of the historic house can proceed. At present virtually all the space in the house is filled with bric-a-brac, furniture, books, toys, household articles, jewelry and cookware. Items will be marked down as an added inducement for final disposal of all articles.

Dealers are again being invited to participate and refreshments will be available.

We Are Happy to Present....

A Book and Music Store
featuring
Books • Records • Tapes

As a service to you...
special orders are available.

S. Main St., Cohasset, Mass.

SPRING tune-ups...

by our factory
trained staff

BAY SHORE MARINE
738 WASHINGTON St. PEMBROKE, MA. 826-2633

Our patio and sun dresses, have just arrived and they look super. These dresses are sized from 6 to 12. We do have a complete line of short sleeve and long sleeve dresses from 6 to 18.

Mary Lou Ackley, Owner of the Sue Butler Shop
Snug Harbor, Duxbury, Mass.